

PowerPoints

PowerPoint presentations are an effective way of organizing multiple complex ideas into an easily digestible format. Use PowerPoint when presenting to government stakeholders, community members, or peers within the urban and community forestry professional ecosystem.

Spreading Roots has developed two simple, clean PowerPoint templates. Keeping the design of the presentation minimal allows for audiences to focus on what truly matters: your message.

You can download these templates on our website at spreadingroots.org.

